MAISON PASSOT

FLEURIE 2019

MAISON PASSOT || Maison Passot is a small 11 hectare family property spread over 4 crus in Beaujolais. Owners Dominique, Rémy and Simon continue the family tradition, going back generations. The family tends 21 plots - half of which are in Chiroubles, one quarter in Morgon, and smaller holdings in Fleurie and Régnié - in addition to some Viognier vines. All farming follows strict tenets of la lutte raisonnée for a more “natural” wine, surrounded by signs of life and rich biodiversity.

BEAUJOLAIS || Located north of Lyon in eastern France, Beaujolais overlaps Burgundy in the north and Rhône in the south. The picturesque Beaujolais vineyards run along the Saône River where the Crus form a meandering path on the granite terrain. From south to north, Brouilly is followed by Côte de Brouilly, Régnié, Morgon, Chiroubles, Fleurie, Moulin-à-Vent, Chénas, Juliéna and Saint-Amour.

FLEURIE 2019 ||

BLEND | 100% Gamay

VINEYARDS | Fleurie is widely considered the most delicate of the crus, covering an area of 855 contiguous hectares (about three square miles). The soil here is unique, almost entirely made up of pink granite. Maison Passot farms 50 year old vines in the Grand pré area of the Cru on east facing slopes.

WINEMAKING | Hand harvested grapes that undergo primary and malolactic fermentation in stainless steel and cement vats.

ALCOHOL | 13%

TASTING NOTES | 93 W&S

“This 27-acre domaine includes a small holding in Fleurie, where the Passot family’s 50-year-old vines grow on east-facing hillsides. It may be the cool morning sun that encourages this wine’s fragrant fruit and gentle, persistent tannins. Nacho Monclús of Brooklyn’s Camperdown Elm found it complex and elegant: “The licorice and red fruit remind me of grenache from Rayas.”
