BODEGAS LA HORRA

CORIMBO 2019

LA HORRA || Bodegas La Horra is a venture from the iconic Rioja producer, Bodegas Roda. They spent four years in research and investigation to find the land best adapted to Tempranillo, the variety which is known in depth by the research and technical team at Roda. They found the most suitable region was Ribera del Duero and specifically within this DO, the area of La Horra. They partnered with the Balbas family, who own some of the most coveted vineyard sites in the village with old bush vines of Tinta del País.

RIBERA DEL DUERO || The cultivation of Tinta del País (Tempranillo) and winemaking tradition in Ribera del Duero was established by medieval monasteries and granted DO status in 1982. The DO vineyards lie on either side of a 110-km stretch of the river on limestone and chalk soils. The riverbanks and low-lying land with water lying close to the surface are called campiña (countryside) and terrazas (terraces); the shallow slopes above them, which are among the best for vines, are called laderas (sides), and steeper slopes called cuestas (slopes).

“The 2019 Corimbo is 100% Tempranillo from La Horra, Ribera del Duero. It aged for 14 months in oak, 80% French and 20% American. This purple-hued, reductive wine displays aromas of herbs and blackberry, along with plums and balsamic notes atop an oaky core. Rich, dry and plush, the palate lingers with taut tannins and resonant black fruit notes..” - Luis Gutierrez
